DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-3, in Paper No. 4, is acknowledged.
2. Claims 4 and 5 have been withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Etherington (3,677,680: figures 1-5; column 1, lines 40-59, column 2, lines 20-30; column 3, lines 44-52 and column 4, line 70 to column 5, line 34).

Etherington teaches an apparatus for detecting the presence of a workpiece (26) on a machine, comprising: a mount (20) for holding the workpiece on the machine, said mount having a contact surface designed for contact with the workpiece, an external surface (base end of the mandrel attached to plate 14) designed to be free of contact with the workpiece and an internal passageway (30) extending between said surfaces; a vacuum pumping and sensing apparatus (27) connected to the end of said passageway the external surface of the mount (see column 3, lines 49-52), said apparatus having a sensor that senses the pressure in said passageway; a control device (50) connected said vacuum pumping and sensing apparatus for stopping the operation of said machine when said sensor senses a pressure above a predetermined maximum pressure. In regards to claim 3, the machine of Etherington is an injection mold press.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: In regards to claim 2, none of the prior art of record teaches an apparatus of claim 1 wherein the machine is a stamping press, the mount is a mandrel with a cylindrical surface designed for sliding contact with a workpiece and the passageway in the mount has a first portion that extends radially inwardly from said cylindrical surface and a second portion that extends axially of the mandrel from the radially inward end. The closest prior art Etherington discloses a mandrel for mounting an insert, but fails to disclose a cylindrical surface designed for sliding contact or a passageway having a first portion that extends radially inward from the cylindrical surface.

Conclusion

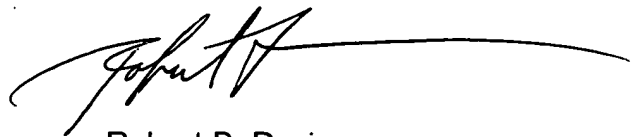

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The remaining references show various vacuum sensing devices.
